Subject: Language revision of the manuscript

Sir,

Greetings! I am Dr. Sadishkumar Kamalanathan, one of the co-authors of manuscript titled as 'Islet cell dysfunction in patients with chronic pancreatitis'.

I am currently additional professor and head of the department of Endocrinology at Jawaharlal Institute of Postgraduate Medical Education and Research, Puducherry, India. I have around 70 international peer-reviewed publications and 6 book chapters in English. I am also an accomplished peer reviewer in journals like BMJ case Reports, Diabetes Technology & Therapeutics, Indian Journal of Medical Research, Indian Journal of Endocrinology and Metabolism, Quarterly Journal of Medicine, Indian Orthopedic Journal etc. I am an ad-hoc reviewer of abstracts submitted for the last five US Endocrine Society's annual ENDO meetings (2015-2019) too.

I have evaluated and re-edited the whole manuscript carefully and I believe the language editing of the manuscript is good and equals the international standards.

Kind regards,

Dr Sadishkumar Kamalanathan
Additional Professor and Head of the Department
