

Ms. Rosalía Gómez-Toledano Bargueño, philologist.

INFORM

I revised the manuscript carefully “New environmental factors related to diabetes risk in humans: systematic review and meta-analysis of emerging bisphenols used in the synthesis of plastics”, which is under consideration for publication in your journal.

Based on my professional experience as a philologist and English teacher for 37 years, I certify that the manuscript meets the quality standards (language, grammar, punctuation, spelling, and overall style) necessary for publication.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any queries.
