Non-Native Speakers of English Editing Certificate for World Journal of Gastroenterology

I, Dr. Mazhar Iqbal, the corresponding author of the manuscript entitled “Screening and identification of bioactive compounds from citrus against NS3 protease of HCV-G3a by FRET assay and Mass Spectrometry”, declare that the authors of the present manuscript are non-native English speakers. However, our manuscript has been thoroughly reviewed and proof read by our collaborators from Native English-Speaking Country (USA):

- 1- Dr. David Waugh, <waughd@mail.nih.gov> (Head, Protein Engineering Core, Macromolecular Crystallography Laboratory, NCI, NIH, USA).
- 2- Dr. Cheryl Winkler, <winklerc@mail.nih.gov> (Head, Molecular Genetic Epidemiology Studies Section, Basic Research Laboratory, NCI, NIH, USA).

Their English improvement and technical proof-reading services have been described in the acknowledgement section of this manuscript.
