CERTIFICATION OF ENGLISH-LANGUAGE QUALITY

Donald F, Haggerty, Ph. D.

In my capacity as a privately employed translator and editor registered with the Argentine national entity Administración Federal de Ingresos Públicos (AFIP), I hereby certify that the English-language in the enclosed manuscript by Molejón et al. is in appropriate style of formal writing for publication in any stringently reviewed organ, scientific or otherwise.

As a retired academic career investigator with a B. S. degree in biochemistry from Yale University and a Ph. D. in biological chemistry from the University of California at Los Angeles, my publications are listed in the Internet along with the articles that have cited them at <https://www.researchgate.net/scientific.../39731466\_Donald\_F\_Haggerty> or can be found by a search in Google with Donald F. Haggerty plus phenylalanine hydroxylase as the key terms.
